

British Crystal Healers (BCH) Grievance Procedure January 2007

The grievance procedure enables BCH to ensure that any problems, complaints or concerns raised by its Members, Principals, Tutors, Practitioners and students are dealt with in a fair, timely and consistent manner. Any discrimination on the grounds of race, sex, sexual orientation, religion, disability, age, gender reassignment, marital status or ethnic origin should be countered and dealt with in an appropriate manner.

1. Informal

If you have a grievance or complaint regarding your course, or treatment by BCH Members, Principals, Practitioners or Tutors, or if you are concerned about your health and safety you should first talk the matter over on an informal basis with your Tutor or Principal. He/she will discuss your concerns with you and attempt to resolve the matter within a reasonable timescale.

2. Formal

If you feel that your grievance has not been resolved or cannot be settled informally, you should write to BCH about the issue. You will then be invited to attend a meeting to discuss the grievance; you must take all reasonable steps to attend this meeting. BCH will consider the matter carefully and communicate the outcome to you in writing within 28 working days.

3. Appeal

If you feel that your grievance has not been satisfactorily resolved, you have the right to raise an appeal. Your request for an appeal should be submitted to BCH in writing within seven working days of you receiving written confirmation of the outcome of the formal grievance meeting. A further meeting will be arranged so that you can discuss your grievance appeal with BCH. The outcome will be communicated to you in writing within fourteen working days. Decisions made at this point are final and the grievance procedure is concluded.

You have the right to be accompanied, if you wish, by a colleague at any grievance and appeal meetings. If your chosen companion is not available at the proposed time, you may request that the meeting is postponed for up to five working days in order that they can accompany you.

Where possible, the different stages of the procedure will be handled by different BCH Council members (normally of increasing seniority). However, where this is not practicable, the same person may handle the different stages and he/she will act as impartially as possible.

Grievances will be handled with as high a degree of confidentiality as is practicable, particularly when the issue is of a sensitive nature.

Confidential records of the grievance will be kept in the BCH Archive in accordance with Data Protection legislation. Copies of meeting notes will be provided, although BCH reserves the right to withhold certain information (e.g. to protect a witness).

Please note that where timescales are specified in this procedure, they may be extended by mutual consent if necessary.
